

The Long Arc

Manifesto

A place to think, not be told.

The Long Arc exists to explore the intersection of faith, technology, story, and the human future.

We believe ideas shape culture.

Stories shape hearts.

Truth shapes what lasts.

We are here to think deeply, speak honestly, and build wisely.

*We envision a world where wisdom guides innovation,
where faith informs progress,
and where every human being is seen, known, and valued.*

OUR COMMITMENTS

- ✦ We pursue truth with humility.
- ✦ We welcome questions and hard conversations.
- ✦ We bridge disciplines and build understanding.
- ✦ We resist reduction—of people, of purpose, and of the soul.
- ✦ We create resources that equip and inspire.

OUR GUIDING BELIEFS

- ✦ Every person has inherent dignity.
- ✦ Technology must serve humanity, not define it.
- ✦ Faith is not an escape from the world, but a way to engage it with wisdom and courage.
- ✦ The future is shaped by the choices we make together, today.

HOW WE SHOW UP

- ✦ Thoughtful, not reactive.
- ✦ Honest, not partisan.
- ✦ Curious, not condescending.
- ✦ Hopeful, not naive.
- ✦ Steadfast, not silent.

OUR INVITATION

The Long Arc is not just content. It is a community of thinkers, builders, questioners, and storytellers who believe the future can be better—and are willing to help build it.

We walk the long arc of history
with our eyes on truth, our hearts on people,
and our hope in the One who writes the story.